LAND FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, as Executor of Samuel W. Branch, deceased, will offer at public vendue, to the highest bidder, on the First Monday in November next, the tract of Land belonging to the estate of the said Samuel W. Branch, on which the said Samuel W. Branch resided at the time of his death.

The said tract of Land is situated in Halifax county, North Carolina, about two miles east of Enfield which is the nearest Depot It contains twelve hundred acres, about two thirds of which are cleared and in cultivation. One hundred acres of the cultivated lands are low grounds of the finest quality. The upland has inexhaustable supplies of marl, of easy access, and is as well adapted to the growth of cotton as any upland plantation in the State. There is a good Dwelling-house, Gin-house, Still-house and out-houses on the Land, an Apple Orchard, in good bearing, sufficient to make ten barrels Brandy, and altogether the plantation is one of the most desirable in the State.

At least three thousand dollars will be required in cash. A credit of one, two and three years will be allowed on the remainder of the purchase money, which must be unexceptionably secured by personal security, or the purchaser may pay all cash at his option. The title, which is indisputable, will be retained until the purchase money is paid. Persons who may desire to purchase can have an opportunity of riding over the plantation by calling at the dwelling. Possession will be given on the 1st of January next.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N.C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

Mrs. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 3, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS. NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,-

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

Election, Thursday, October 18th.

For our own part, we can say that rather than have our State governments abolished, negro suffrage forced upon us, the property of our people confiscated or depredated on by squads of soldiers, and the women and children starved to death or rendered houseless and homeless, we would prefer the adoption of the proposed amendment. We are as deeply interested in the welfare of the country as any man, our heart is with the South, and here in North Carolina we expect to live and die.—Charlotte Democrat.

That is about what Gen. Dockery's letter may be construed to mean. No one, we presume, would differ on that simple presentation of a choice between two evils. But has the Democrat or has Gen. Dockery pondered the whole question? We think not.

It is perfectly manifest, that there are many in the North who act with the Republican party who are not Radical enough to force universal negro suffrage upon the South at present.—Yet none of them would object, if the Southern States of their own accord would adopt it.—Hence the Howard amendment has been designedly framed, so as to delude the South into the adoption of it, in the belief that when the Southern people find that the whole question is entirely under the control of Congress, they will at once adopt negro suffrage, to prevent its being forced upon them.

If it were left to the Southern people to choose, whether they would reduce their representation and disfranchise those citizens of the South who are disfranchised by the adoption of the Howard amendment and be restored, or take the abolition of the State governments, negro suffrage, confiscation and their consequences, they would not hesitate a moment. We are sure every disfranchised man in the South would readily submit to the amendment and vote for it.—But that is not the question. Where is it said in that amendment, that if the Southern States will adopt it, that that will settle all disputes and bring about reconciliation? Where is it so declared in the action of Congress? What prominent man in the Republican party has said anything like it? The New York Herald, edited by James Gordon Bennett, and the Raleigh Standard, edited by W. W. Holden, which are entitled to about the same degree of confidence by the people of North Carolina, say something like it—labor to make the impression that if we adopt the Howard amendment all our difficulties will be settled, but they know better when they say so. Does the Tribune, or the Times, or Forney's Chroniele, say so? Not a word of it. Does any Senator or Representative say so, who voted for the Howard amendment? Who is he? Where is it so said?—Not one.

The question is not, whether we will take the Howard amendment, or the abolition of our State governments, or negro suffrage or confiscation? But the real question is, whether the States will pass the amendment and thus empower Congress to force negro suffrage upon us, if the States do not beforehand adopt it. Look at the first section of the bill again:

"SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the States wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

Does not that section empower Congress to equalize or make the same laws in every State, in regard to "all persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof?" Does it not empower Congress to compel the States, if, in its judgment, any of them "make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States," to abrogate said laws? Nay, will not the Constitution of the United States itself, if this amendment passes, oblige all the States to erase from their statute books "all laws which abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States?" Mr. Holden in his address squints at the real bearing of the amendment, where, in commenting on this very section, he asks if there is anything wrong in a citizen of Massachusetts, who comes into North Carolina, enjoying the same liberty in this State that he does at home?—Yes, certainly it is wrong, if Massachusetts allows such a license or immunity to her citizens, which might not be dangerous to the peace of society in that State, but which would be in North Carolina. And that involves the whole question at issue.

As the Constitution now stands, each State has full power to adopt any municipal regulations or any law for the preservation of her own internal peace and quiet, not contrary to the Constitution of the United States. Pass this amendment and the States would still have power to pass any law not contrary to the Constitution, but does not every one see that the powers of the States are thereby greatly abridged? Is it not plain that no State can then pass a law for the preservation of her own internal quiet and order, which at all "abridges the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States?"

For instance, in Massachusetts the colored population may be as one to forty whites or more. The peace of society or good government could not be at all affected injuriously by allowing negro suffrage in that State or any o the Northern States, but in North Carolina, where the proportion is as one to one and one third, (and in the more Southern States the proportion of blacks to whites is far greater,) does any sane man believe that, in their present condition, they could be allowed to vote without endangering the peace of society and good government? Impossible. But Mr. Holden, in his address, holds that if a colored citizen of Boston is allowed to marry a white woman, or if the laws of that State allow him to be a Mormon and to marry twelve or twenty wives at once, or to be a Postmaster, or any other public officer, or to enjoy the right of suffrage, or if they exempt him from taxation or grant him any privilege or immunity, that therefore, when he comes into North Carolina, he ought to enjoy the same liberty!

Heretofore, every citizen of the United States, coming from other States into North Carolina, has thought it quite enough to be placed on the same footing with the citizens of this State, except that he is not allowed to vote unless, according to our law, he has been in the State twelve months, is a white man twenty-one years of age, has resided six months before the election in the County where he votes, and has paid a public tax. Is that law a bad one?—Ought that law to be abolished, because it "abridges the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States." Could such a law stand upon our statute books, if the proposed amendment becomes a part of the Constitution? Certainly not.

The truth is, the great, the prodigious mischief of the amendment lies in that first section and the fifth. If it was the purpose of those who drew up and passed that amendment only to reduce the representation of the Southern States to the voting population, in case those States refused to grant negro suffrage; to disfranchise those of our people who had held office, and to secure the payment of the national debt, why did they not adopt the last four sections, leaving out the first? These four last would have secured those objects fully. Then the organic character of the government would have been preserved, the rights of the States to pass their own municipal laws would have remained intact, and the question of suffrage would have still been within the powers of the States. But does not every one see that just so soon as that amendment passes, with the first section attached to it, that every question which affects "the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States" is at once taken out of the hands of the States and transferred to Congress?

We beg our cotemporary of the Democrat, we beg Gen. Dockery, to reconsider their position, and see whither they are travelling, when they concede that the people of the Southern States, had better adopt the proposed amendment rather than be forced to take negro suffrage, confiscation, &c. For nothing can be plainer than that when the States constitutionally pass that amendment, they have conferred upon Congress the right and power to pass a law bestowing upon the negroes the right of suffrage in all the States, or any other law which Congress may deem necessary to bestow privileges and immunities upon any or all of the citizens of the United States. Having secured this, the Congress could constitutionally, by the agency of the colored voters and their "unmistakably loyal" white friends, adopt such a system of State government as they thought proper, disfranchising any portion they chose, confiscating their property and what else they thought proper to do, and all by the consent and votes of the free white people of the States, voting for the amendment.

Disfranchise.

The Standard, the other day, betrayed so much ignorance in assuming that the Howard amendment disfranchised no one—that "to disfranchise means to take away the right to vote,"—that we concluded not to notice it, supposing that, when it discovered its error, it would correct it. But it seems to be a standing rule with that people never to correct any statement it makes, however incorrect or false.

We observe that the Newbern Times endorses the same error, and we learn that Mr. Holden's friends on the streets deny that the Howard amendment disfranchises any one, and that they assert that disfranchise means nothing else but to prevent citizens from voting. Hence we must instruct them.

Blackstone says disfranchise means, "to deprive of the rights and privileges of a free citizen; to deprive of chartered rights or immunities; to deprive of any franchise, as of the right of voting," &c. Citizens of States are clothed by the organic law with various franchises, such as protection to life, liberty and property, the right to vote, to hold office, &c. Does not the amendment deprive a certain class of men of the important franchise of holding office? Certainly, and yet the ignorant are told, and believe it, that "to disfranchise means to take away the right to vote," as if it meant nothing else. Did Mr. Holden intend to deceive his readers, or was it a mistake through ignorance?

WENDELL PHILLIPS, in the last week's Anti-Slavery Standard, urges the impeachment of the President, and asks the thirty-ninth Congress to pass an act, previous to its adjournment, fixing the 5th of March next as the day for the assembling of its successor, in order that Mr. Johnson may have no respite from congressional persecution between the 4th of March and the 4th of December.

THE PITSBURG Commercial says there is authority for stating that Mr. Seward will soon retire from public life, from a desire to obtain that repose and recreation which his medical advisers inform him are so absolutely indispensable to the prolongation of his life. The Secretary thus advises some of his more intimate personal and political friends.

THE NEXT SESSION of the General Assembly of Vermont opens on Thursday, October 11.—It probably will elect two United States Senators, and ratify the Rump constitutional amendment.

Outrages by Brownlow's Minions in Western North Carolina---Candidates for the Legislature, &c., &c.

FRANKLIN, MACON, Co., Sept. 23, 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Presuming that some, at least, of the readers of your valuable paper might feel an interest in what is going on in this the third geographical division of the State, usually denominated the Switzerland of America from its resemblance in size, productions and in being fenced in by high impassable mountains, except at a few passes, which seem to have been designed by nature to make the country accessible to other portions of the South of which it forms the centre, I have taken time to drop you a hurried note.

His Honor, Judge Shipp, held court in Cherokee last week. But few decisions of importance were made. The court had its deliberations very much disturbed, on Monday, by the return of some noted individuals from Tennessee, by the name of Morrow, well armed. They made an attack on a man by the name of Tatham, fired a pistol at him while on his horse in the act of leaving for home, the ball missing him and taking effect in the neck of his horse. Tatham, who, it seems, had been apprehensive of an attack, was also armed and returned the fire, killing instantly one of the Morrows, and rode off. The other Morrow mounted a horse and pursued him a short distance, but not in the range of gunshot. He wheeled his horse, came back to where his brother was lying dead and deliberately fired on a lawyer by the name of Boon, killing him instantly. Boon appears to have been unarmed, not having suspected any attack. After killing Boon he fired on a man by the name of Cooper, quite a peaceable and inoffensive man not engaged in the affray, inflicting on him two severe wounds, from which his recovery is deemed doubtful, and Morrow then made his escape in the direction of Tennessee, where he resides. These outrages by men from Tennessee, acting under the advice of Gov. Brownlow, who published the opinion that it was right to kill the rebs wherever found, and that he would pardon the affence, are becoming too frequent to be continued much longer without producing a border warfare much to be deplored.

A man by the name of Cline, residing in the lower part of Jackson county, was shot down in cold blood, a short time since, by a band of marauders from Tennessee, known as the Robert Burchfield robbers. Four of them came to the house of Cline a little while before dark, called him out, and pretended that they wanted to trade with him, he being a merchant, loitered about until dark, then pretended that they wanted a candle to count out their money. As soon as the candle came, without saying a word, two of them shot him,—the balls taking effect near his heart, causing instant death.—He leaves a wife and a large number of small children to mourn his loss. The murderers were able to make their escape to the dominions of Governor Brownlow.

Another portion, including the notable Bob Burchfield, himself, about the same time penetrated into the lower portion of Cherokee county, went to the house of a Mrs. Gunter, fired upon two of her sons, wounding one of them seriously. They, too, made their escape to the same rendezvous, where, no doubt, it will be said by some of the Radicals: "Well done, thou good and faithful servants." There seems to be no remedy for these aggressions, while Governor Brownlow, who has sanctioned the policy of killing rebs in cold blood, remains in power with his corporal's guard of Radicals, and all others except the darkies are disfranchised.—We may hope for better influences if President Johnson's liberal policy succeeds in the State. These murderers of our peaceable citizens along the border will, as in the days of yore, be surrendered and turned over to the civil authority for trial and punishment.

With the courts, a sufficient number of candidates make their appearance to justify the conclusion that a draft of representatives will not be necessary on the present occasion.

In Cherokee Co., Squire Bristol and Col. Davidson, (brother to A. T. Davidson) who are favorable to President Johnson's Union measures, are candidates for the commons. Also Capt. Simonds, late of the Confederate army, and who carried off the first company from Cherokee, is a candidate for the House of Commons. I did not ascertain what his present opinions are, but it is said, by some of his friends, that he favors, upon the happening of certain contingencies, the adoption by the State of the Radical amendment to the Constitution, which would disfranchise a large portion of the citizens of Cherokee county, and in their stead enfranchise the negroes.

In Macon county, Capt. Crawford, a member to the last Legislature, is again a candidate in the House of Commons, on the Johnson Union and peace platform. Isaac Keener, brother of Joseph Keener, is his opponent. His politics are not so well defined, but it is believed that he favors the adoption of the Radical amendment to the Constitution, like Capt. Simonds, upon the happening of certain contingencies.—This is as far as any of the Radicals seem disposed to venture at the present in this district.

Joseph Keener, Esq., former representative in the Senate, is again a candidate for re election. Also Col. James R. Love, a commander of a regiment of Thomas' Legion in the late war, and more recently a member of the Convention. Both of these candidates, the former before the war an old line Whig, the latter, as far as his political life was known, a conservative and internal improvement Democrat, are on President Johnson's Union and peace platform. Capt. Robert Henry, late of the Confederate army in that capacity, and more recently a member of the Convention, is also a candidate for a seat in the Senate. He, like Isaac Keener and Capt. Simonds, of Cherokee, is in favor of the adoption of the "Radical amendment to the Constitution upon the happening of certain contingencies," which would, if adopted, disfranchise himself and a large portion of the officers and soldiers of his county, as well as those living in other portions of the State,—enfranchise the negroes to vote in their place, fill their seats in the jury box, Justices of the Peace, on the bench, and in the Legislature; be the guardians of their rights, to disfranchise the balance of the rebel soldiers and rebel sympathizers and confiscate their lands to provide homes for themselves.

The vote at the coming election will test the strength of these measures, which, if successful, will be followed by a war ten times more horrible than the one from which we have just emerged. JUNIUS.

The population of New Orleans is double what it was during the war, and one fourth larger than ever before.

Bismarck has caused the Queen of Hanover's hair to turn white. Two months ago it was jet black, but troubles tell.

The eldest daughter of Bishop Gregg, of Texas, and her husband, to whom she was recently married, have just died of cholera, at San Antonio.

On the 9th instant elections occur in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa. Besides the various officers to be voted for, these States will choose at that time sixty members of Congress.

For the Sentinel.

"Unmistakably Loyal."

I send you, Messrs. Editors, a few facts with regard to the "unmistakably loyal," who are put forth as the Executive Committee from the Standard office:

And, first, to begin with the first,—the President of the Standard office meeting was the first man, according to my recollection, who proposed to murder President Lincoln by asking, in his paper, "who would plot" for the head of Abraham Lincoln? Booth answered this, the most diabolical question ever put to assassins. Pop went the pistol, and off went his head.—"So much for Buckingham."

The Standard office address, among many other curious things, says:

"It is true, one of the Senators elected by the Legislature is a loyal man, and is debarred from subscribing the oath only by a technicality."

The same "technicality" which "debars" Mr. Pool also bars General Lee and General Johnson, to-wit; the shame, tear and abhorrence of committing perjury; for the test oath requires you to swear you did not "give aid, countenance or encouragement to the rebellion," and that you never "sought or desired office under the Confederacy." Mr. Pool sought a Brigadier's place. He was a Davis elector. He took an oath to support the Constitution of the Confederacy.

Mr. Carter's "technicalities" are the same as Mr. Pool's, except the matter of Elector, which Mr. Carter makes up by having acted as Colonel of a Regiment and as a Judge of a military court, where deserters were tried and condemned.

Captain Thomas Settle's "technicalities:"—Ditto Mr. Pool's, always excepting the Elector business, for which short coming the Captain makes up by having served in the Peninsula campaign as a volunteer captain, and with such zeal, ability and success, against the little Napoleon, as caused his confederates in arms to elect him Colonel, which honor the Captain modestly declined, as well he might; for this colonelcy would make him equal in "technicalities" to Senator Pool.

R. P. Dick's "technicalities:"—Ditto Mr. Pool's, except the elector business, which, on Mr. Dick's part, is fully made up by his encouraging war speeches and his able campaign as a candidate for the Confederate Congress in 1862.

Capt. O. H. Dockery's "technicalities":—Deficient, when compared with Senator Pool, only in the business of elector. Equal in single handed speech-making for volunteers to R. P. Dick. When assisted by his father, the old General, he surpassed that Confederate orator by great odds.

Todd R. Caldwell's "technicalities":—Mr. Caldwell's Confederate undertakings were, like his Railroad enterprise, a failure, but we will do him the justice to say that he did his best in both. He visited Confederate camps, encouraged the boys, wished them well, was sorry for their failure. If his good wishes and his money could have given them the victory, our boys would have had it.

Hon. A. H. Jones has only one "technicality." He was a candidate for the Legislature in Confederate days, as his letters written from the army will show.

He was in the army, not like Captain Settle, with the unpremeditated gallantry of a Rockingham volunteer, but as a conscript. He desired to go to the Legislature to get out of the army. He was not elected. He got out of the army by deserting.

Dr. Eugene Grissom, like most men, has two "technicalities." He served as a volunteer soldier, (no conscript like Jones.) Not satisfied when disabled from wounds, he goes upon Governor Vance's staff. How can Holden forgive that last technicality, unless it be canceled by his going on Holden's staff, as he did with Mr. Caldwell?

General Logan:—Judging from the technicalities of Capt. Settle, Capt. Grissom and Col. Carter, one might think, from the prefix to Logan's name, that he too had military "technicalities." Not so, and who ever thinks it thinks what the Standard office candidate for Governor thinks of the Standard, to wit: "a lie."

General Logan is no General. He got the title by heading a Militia brigade. The General has character as a good taking-care sort of a man. He was sent to the Confederate Congress to take care of the Confederacy. He would have served his people in the field, but they preferred to have him in the Cabinet. He was known at one time to be a good Confederate; at any rate, he swore he was by taking the oath.

Thomas and Thompson are so near alike they may be recorded together. Thomas, Dick-like, was a candidate for the Confederate Congress. Whether his purpose was, like Mr. Pool's, as stated by Mr. Doolittle, to embarrass the Confederate government, I do not know. His zeal for the Confederate cause was at a white heat, until the people extinguished it by refusing to send him to Congress.

Mr. Thompson's love for the Confederacy was never more than skin-deep. Our impression is, he voted for Mr. Pool as the Davis Elector. He voted for and helped to send up members from his county who were fully committed to the war and swore to support the Confederacy.—Like Mr. Caldwell, he gave of his money and his means for the cause, and was sadly grieved when it failed,—yes, verily grieved to the amount of two hundred negroes and upwards.

James Fontleroy Taylor:—Made up of "technicalities,"

"Of manners gentle, of affections mild;
In poetry a man, simplicity a child."

His service in the army was involuntary. His presence in front was forced by conscription.

He went to sea on the Ad-Vance of his own motion, and acquired fame as a bold daring blockade runner, devil bent on feeding and clothing naked and hungry Confederates or perishing in the briny deep. The life, light and intellect of the ship, I see Fontleroy, as the Ad-Vance puts to sea,

"Walking the waters like a thing of life,
Daring the Yankees and the elements to strife."

Yes, I hear him Byron-izing on deck:

"O'er the glad waters of the dark blue sea,
Our thoughts as boundless and our souls as free;
Far as the breeze can bear, the billows foam,
Survey our empire, and behold our home."

No great thoughts, no great feeling have come to Fontleroy since the death of the Confederacy. Tears from the depth of his despair rise in his heart and gather in his eye. With free negroes and the bureau about him, like Proctor, he sighs:

"The sea! the sea! the open sea!
The blue, the fresh, the ever free!"

I must now close my notice of the Standard office Executive Committee, begging pardon of Messrs. Cowles, Stewart, Pemberton, Henry and Sloan, for not showing their "technicalities," for I do not know what they are, nor who they are; but I here invite their respective friends to send the Sentinel their Confederate history. X.

P. S. If Sloan is the doctor that sold the cotton to A. J. Jones, then I beg his pardon twice; I do know about the cotton. The Standard has never been heard on the subject of that cotton, though it was sold by his Provisional Treasurer. X.

P. S.—No apology for General Dockery, who calls Governor Holden "Bill," and says "he outlied them all." The man who talks so can't be oyal; so I have omitted his technicalities, such as raising a company for his son Oliver, voting in December, 1860, $300,000 to arm the State even before South Carolina had seceded,—thanking Gov. Ellis for his proclamation in reply to Lincoln's, when the Governor called for thirty thousand troops, long before the State seceded.

If the General will say he did all this, Poollike, (as said by Doolittle,) to embarrass the Confederacy, then we will call him loyal. Otherwise we will do him the justice to say he was as good a Confederate as Bill Arp, or any other man in Georgia.

P. S.—Where is Dr. Powell, that he did not send a telegram to the mass meeting held in the Standard office? X

FARM NEAR RALEIGH FOR SALE.

IF not privately disposed of before Tuesday, the 23rd. of the present month, (October,) the above property will then be sold, without reserve, at public auction, on the premises, 3 miles north of Raleigh, immediately on the Oxford Road, and within half a mile of Millbrook, the first station on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad. The tract contains about one hundred and twenty acres, (with about sixty-six acres adjoining, which the purchaser can obtain on reasonable terms) making in all about 186 acres. There is a dwelling with four rooms and fire-places, and an excellent well of water on the premises. The dwelling is situated in a beautiful grove of large native oak and hickory. The place, which is famous for its healthfulness, is susceptible of being made one of the most eligible County seats in the country. The land, though not rich, produces well when properly cultivated and lies well for improvement. Its nearness to Millbrook, where daily transportation to and from Raleigh could be had, while its distance from Raleigh, which would prevent it from depredations subject to places nearer the City, well adapts it for being made a dairy, nursery and vegetable farm.

Terms made easy for the purchaser. For particulars or information concerning the property, enquire of L. S. PERRY, at Raleigh, or MAJ. R. FLEMING, near Millbrook.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 3, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Attention of parties interested is called to the Court advertisement from Warren.

See tax notice of the Collector for the 4th District.

See announcement of Schedule on the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad.

B. P. Williamson & Co. will sell mules, wagon, harness, &c. at auction, to morrow, (Thursday,) at 11 o'clock, on Market Square.

QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT.—We learn that Col. Stubbs has vacated the new Bank in this city and removed the Quartermaster's Department to Newbern.

BUILDINGS VACATED.—The removal of the Quartermaster's Department to Newbern puts the Bank building under the control of its owner, J. G. Williams, Esq., and we hope he will proceed at once to complete it. When completed, it will be an ornament to the city.

We are also glad to learn that the dwelling of our friend Dr. F. J. Haywood, in this city, has been, or will be, delivered up to him in a few days. As soon as it can be refitted, we presume he will return to his old residence. The building and lot have been severely defaced.

THE GERMAN BAND.—This splendid band discoursed sweet music, yesterday evening, on the Capitol Square, to the great gratification of the public.

WE ARE PLEASED to hear Gen. Bumford highly spoken of as a gentleman and soldier by those who have formed his acquaintance.

COURTS MARTIAL.—We presume that the Court Martial, or Military Commission, which has been sitting here for months, will soon close its sessions. We learn that the case of Maj. Goslin is now before the Court, on charges of improper uses of government stores. We presume he has been acting as Quartermaster at Roanoke Island.

TABLEAUX.—The ladies at New Hope will repeat their interesting and beautiful tableaux to-night, for the benefit of the Wake Memorial Association. It is to be hoped that many of our citizens of both sexes will encourage the exhibition and its objects by their presence.

EMIGRANTS.—The Western train missed connection on yesterday morning, which detained the large number of Emigrants, alluded to on yesterday, until this morning. We learn there were about 400. Many of these are Friends or Quakers, we understand, who are going to join their friends in Indiana. For many years the removal of Friends to Indiana has been large. The emigration was interrupted during the war and hence the large numbers now going. We learn that two or three thousand more contemplate removing. Every one must regret this, because of the removal of so many laboring men from the State.

THE UNIVERSITY.—We are pleased to learn that the number of students at the University is steadily increasing, and that the session is progressing smoothly,—the young gentlemen devoting themselves to the course with commendable assiduity.

The Committee of Trustees, appointed at the last meeting in June to investigate certain matters connected with the affairs of the University, will assemble at the Executive office this evening. Gov. Graham is Chairman of the Committee.

"EXCHANGE HOTEL."—The Editor of the Wilmington Journal, who was on a visit to this city, recently, pays the following handsome compliment to the "Exchange Hotel," under Mr. Blair's management:

"Raleigh can boast of the very best hotel we have ever stopped at in the South. The Exchange Hotel, under the new management of Mr. J. M. Blair, of Ashville, is most excellent in the neatness and cleanliness of its rooms and furniture, the quality and quantity of its fare, and the urbanity and attention of its employees, and is an ornament to the city."

THE LEGISLATURE.—Patrick Murphy, Esq. is a candidate for the Senate in Sampson County.

Peter McRae, Esq. is a candidate for the House of Commons in Richmond county.

Ex-Gov. Henry T. Clarke is a candidate for the Senate in Edgecombe and Wilson Counties.

Jno. T. Bellamy, Esq. is a candidate for the House of Commons in Edgecombe.

ATLANTIC & N. C. R. R.—We had the pleasure of meeting, this morning, Col. John D. Whitford, the efficient and energetic President of this road.

We are gratified to learn that the business of the road is rapidly increasing. All of the bridges on the route are being repaired, and this is being done without interruption or delay to transportation.

A DARING AND OUTRAGEOUS ROBBERY.—We learned yesterday from Mr. W. Ames, a very peaceable and worthy citizen, who is running the celebrated farm of COUNCIL WOOTEN, near Mosely Hall, in Lenoir county, that a party of half dozen or more white men on Saturday last went to his farm to take his mules, and on being resisted by a boy in his employ, they killed him on the spot, firing some four or five pistol balls at him. Mr. A. hearing the affray rushed to the scene of action in time to secure seven or eight of the ten or twelve mules which they had taken from the negro boy, they having broken loose through fright which the melee had caused. These hardened wretches stood their ground for a time and threatened to shoot Mr. Ames, but he stood firm in defence of his property, and the cowardly scoundrels finally left with only two or three of the coveted animals. No arrests have been made up to this writing that we know of, and we have not learned whether any pursuit was made or not.—Newbern Times.

The Constitutional Amendment—The President's Next Message—Points He Will Recommend.

(Special Dispatch to the Balt. Sun.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—All statements to the effect that the President has announced his determination to recommend the adoption of the amendments to the constitution proposed by Congress are utterly unfounded. He has not said to any one he was in favor of those amendments. It is true, nevertheless, that the President has had under consideration some of the political points to be embraced in his next annual message to Congress, and some of these points have been submitted to his Cabinet. There is good reason for saying that Mr. Johnson will adhere strictly to the policy that has characterized his administration. Among other things he will urge that while the constitution leaves it an open question for the courts whether ordinary legislation is or is not binding while States are refused representation, that instrument is distinct and emphatic in its requirement that in the preparation of amendments to the constitution, all the States that claim and are willing to exercise the right shall be represented.

The President will insist on the immediate admission of loyal and legally qualified representatives, from all the non-represented States, in order that Congress may be enabled to prepare such amendments as the condition of the country demands. He will likewise recommend that where Congress is in accordance with this view of the requirements of the constitution, amendments may be prepared adapting the questions of representation and taxation to meet the changed condition of the country. It is also understood that the President will embody in his message, as a suggestion to Congress, the two propositions for amendment submitted last winter in the reported conversation with Senator Dixon. A corrected and revised copy of the propositions for amendment is herewith sent as follows:

"Representatives shall be appointed among the several States which may be included within this Union according to the manner of qualified male voters, as prescribed by each State. Direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union according to the value of all property subject to taxation in each State. This amendment not to take effect, until the census of 1870 shall have been taken."

The Radical Soldiers Dissatisfied with Butler's Principles and Sentiments.

Since the adjournment of the Convention much dissatisfaction has been expressed by soldiers from all parts of the country, especially from New York, at some of the principles and sentiments put forth by General Butler in his address before the Convention to-day. His declaration that more may be required of the Southern States in the event of their adoption of the constitutional amendment, before they shal be admitted to Congress, is generally regarded with great disfavor, as threatening to leave the country still in agitation and the States unrepresented, even though the constitutional aamendment should prevail. The better part of the soldiers also utterly repudiate his demand for the hanging of General Lee as well as Jeff. Davis. The large majority of the soldiers distinctly disclaim that such are the sentiments of the party to which they intend to give their ballots.

THE IMPEACHMENT OF THE PRESIDENT.—Mr. Bingham, of the Ohio Congressmen, went so far in a recent speech as to say that if re-elected:

"So help me God, I will neither give sleep to my eyes, nor slumber to my eye lids, until I have drawn bills of impeachment against Andrew Johnson."

This is the intention—and Bingham is a leading light among the Radical members of Congress. Re-elect enough of these men, and we have the country convulsed by a trial of impeachment which will shake its commerce and trade from top to bottom, and bottom to top.—New York Express.

The Funeral of the Late Rev. Dr. Hawks.

The funeral of this eminent divine took place in New York on Saturday last, at Calvary Church, of which he had been for many years the pastor. The Express of Saturday says:

"At half past two o'clock the remains, followed by a large procession, were brought to Calvary Church, where they were received by Bishop Potter, Bishop Lay, Bishop Talbot, and some of the leading ministers of the city, at the porch. Bishop Potter subsequently recited the initiatory sentences of the Burial service, while the body was carried up the central aisle, escorted by the pall-bearers—when the remains were brought at the foot of the marble font, at which Dr. Hawks administered the right of Baptism for many years. The services were commenced by the Rev. Dr. Washburne, who read the opening collects of the service, after which the Rev. Dr. Tuttle announced the 62d hymn:

"When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died," which was sung by all the congregation. The officiating clergy here proceeded to the transept where the remains lay, and Bishop Potter read the committal service. At four o'clock the remains, followed by an immense funeral cortege, were conveyed to Greenwood Cemetery, where they were deposited in Mr. Niblo's vault."

TO BE HIRED OUT.—On the 6th of August last, one Dr. Elihu Toland was convicted on his confession, in the Criminal Court of Gadsden County in this State, of the crime of bigamy, and was fined one thousand dollars and costs, the whole amounting to $1,126, and committed to jail in default of payment. The prisoner being destitute of all pecuniary means, the Board of County Commissioners have directed the Sheriff to put him on the block and hire him out "to any person or persons who will take him for the shortest period of time and pay said fine and costs." The hiring was to have taken place last Saturday.—Tallahasse Floridian.

A lady entered a train at a country station on the New Jersey railroad, the other day, and sat down with her back to the locomotive. Finding her mistake, and not wishing to ride backwards, she politely asked the conductor if he would turn the car around. He didn't do it.

"Dear me, how fluidly he talks!" said Mrs Partington, recently at a temperance meeting.—"I am always rejoiced when he mounts the nostril, for his eloquence warms every cartridge of my body."

HIGHEST PRICE YET.—A lot of leaf tobacco was sold in Richmond, on Friday, for the extraordinary price of one thousand dollars per hundred pounds. It was made by J. J. Adcock, of Granville county, North Carolina, and was purchased by a Richmond manufacturer.

A Washington letter says of the Radical officeholders: "Their time is short and every mother's son of them will walk the plank. Lists have been prepared, and heads will commence tumbling at once."

Bismark, says an exchange, has done more in the work of "reconstruction" in three months than the American Congress has done in eighteen.

North Carolina and the Late War.

A correspondent writes to the N. Y. Record from Pittsboro', N. C., as follows:

"I will take the liberty of trespassing upon your time and the patience of your numerous readers, to give some account as to what is being done in the "Old North State." It might very naturally have been supposed that, as the war closed in this State, Gen. Johnston's surrender being made at Greensboro', and as a natural consequence of the disbanding of large bodies of soldiery, much confusion and a terrible state of disorder and anarchy should have prevailed among us; but happily for us, the same orderly, conservative, law-abiding principle which has always characterized North Carolinians, at that trying hour shone forth most conspicuously; order was soon restored, the laws respected, and in a short time the machinery of government was working as smoothly as in any Southern State, and much better than in many. North Carolina may probably never receive justice from the historians of the war, for the gallant part she sustained in the late bloody drama, and therefore I may be excused for mentioning a few historical facts, for I entirely concur in the old Latin proverb—"fiat justitia, ruat coelum." It is well known to all that the first battle of the war was fought and won by North Carolina troops, under the command of the then Colonel, but now Lieutenant General D. H. Hill; but it is not so generally known, though none the less true, that on the 9th of April, 1865, immediately before the surrender of General Lee on the ever-memorable hills of Appomattox Court House, North Carolina troops, commanded by another distinguished son of the old North State—Major General Bryan Grimes, made the last charge and fired the last volley for Southern Independence.

With a population of less than a million whites and blacks, North Carolina sent into the Confederate army 120,000 well-armed soldiers. Upon the ensanguined hills around Gettysburg, on the burning sands near Charleston, on the blood-stained heights of Missionary Ridge, around the beleaguered trenches of Petersburg, on every carnage covered field of Southern valor, and in the dreary hospitals of Richmond, were to be found the gallant, dauntless, suffering, fearless old "Tar-heels." And now, since "grim-visaged war hath smoothed his wrinkled front," those battled-scarred veterans have returned to their homes, determined to repair the disasters of war, and work as vigorously in the more congenial pursuits of peace; and as the results of their labors we now see fields waving with their ripening grain, and marks of returning industry on every side, where but a short time since Sherman's "bummers" were rioting in all their fiendish work of devastation.

History in vain may search for a parallel to equal the vigor and earnestness with which the Southerners, though defeated, deprived of all their property, and rendered destitute by four years of unprecedented suffering, resumed their peaceful avocations, and realized the stern necessities of the day by a quiet and patient submission to their conquerors."

"Far-fetched and dear-bought," is not always proof of value. The medical world is becoming alive to the fact that our common Dock Root of the fields, is an important remedial agent, and one of the most effectual alteratives known. It has always been a favorite medicine with the wise mothers of the country, for ulcers and sores and for purifying the blood. This root which grows so abundantly around us everywhere, is now known to be one of the ingredients of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is attracting public attention by its extraordinary cures of cutaneous and ulcerous diseases. Each country produces the antidotes for its own disorders, as was said of old "and upon the banks thereof shall grow all trees for meat, whose flower shall not fade, and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine."—Northfield, (Vt.) Herald.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will knew its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL.—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR

Maggiel's Pills and Salve.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative notes, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegeo Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market. McILWAINE & CO.
